5. Centerview's professionals have also provided services in connection with the out-of-court restructurings of numerous companies, including Accentcare, Alkegen, Anchor Danly, Autocam Corporation, Broder Bros Co., CDX Gas, Caesars Entertainment Corporation, Chicago Bridge & Iron Company, Cloud Peak Energy, CMS Energy, CNL Hotels & Resorts, Culligan, DS Waters of America, Inc., EyeCare Partners, Gate Gourmet, Inc., Grupo TMM, S.A., Huntsman Corporation, Ion Media Networks, Isola Group Ltd., J. C. Penney Company, Keystone Automotive Operations, Inc., Magenta Buyer LLC (dba Trellex / Skyhigh Security), Mashantucket Pequot Gaming Enterprise/Foxwoods, MediaMath, Neovia Logistics, PlayAGS, OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC, Palisades Center, PlayPower, Pluralsight, Progressive Moulded Products, Rackspace Technology, Radiology Partners, R.J. O'Brien, SI Corporation, Sirva, Inc., Springs Window Fashions, Stolt-Nielsen, S.A., Targus Group International, TG Natural Resources, Tosca Services, Tronox Inc., and Vonage Holdings Corporation.

Scope of Services

6. Subject to further order of the Court, and as set forth more fully in the Engagement Letter attached to the Order as Exhibit 1, in consideration for the compensation contemplated therein, Centerview has and will perform the following financial advisory and investment banking services pursuant to the Engagement Letter (the “Services”), to the extent requested by the Debtors:

a. General Financial Advisory and Investment Banking Services:

- i. familiarize itself with the business, operations, properties, financial condition, and prospects of the Debtors;
- ii. review the Debtors’ financial condition and outlook;
- iii. assist the Debtors in the development of financial data and presentations to the Debtors’ Board of Directors, various creditors and other parties;
- iv. evaluate the Debtors’ debt capacity and capital structure alternatives;
- v. participate in negotiations among the Debtors, and related creditors, suppliers, lessors, and other interested parties with respect to any of the transactions contemplated by the Engagement Letter; and
- vi. perform such other financial advisory services as may be specifically agreed upon in writing by the Debtors and Centerview.

b. Restructuring Services:

- i. analyze various restructuring scenarios and the potential impact of those scenarios on the value of the Debtors; and the recoveries of those stakeholders impacted by the Restructuring;
- ii. provide financial and valuation advice and assistance to the Debtors in developing and seeking approval of a Plan;⁴
- iii. provide financial advice and assistance to the Debtors in identifying and contacting any third-party financing sources and structuring any new securities to be issued pursuant to the Restructuring;
- iv. provide financial advice and assistance to the Debtors in connection with any sale(s) including identifying and contacting any potential acquirors and participating in any negotiations;

⁴ As used in the Engagement Letter, the term “Plan” means a plan of reorganization, plan of liquidation and/or § 363 sale(s) under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

- v. assist the Debtors and/or participate in negotiations with entities or groups affected by the Restructuring; and
- vi. if requested by the Debtors, participate in hearings before the Court with respect to the matters upon which Centerview has provided advice, including, as relevant, coordinating with the Debtors' proposed counsel with respect to testimony in connection therewith.

c. Financing Services:

- i. provide financial advice and assistance to the Debtors in structuring and effecting a Debtor-in-Possession Financing,⁵ and
- ii. assist in the arranging of a Debtor-in-Possession Financing, the due diligence process and negotiating the terms of any proposed financing.

7. I believe these professional services are necessary to the Debtors' restructuring efforts and in the ongoing operation and management of the debtors' business while subject to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Further, if the Debtors requests that Centerview perform services not contemplated by the Engagement Letter, Centerview and the Debtors will agree, in writing, on the terms for such services and seek the Court's approval. I believe that the employment of Centerview is important to enabling the Debtors to execute their duties as debtors in possession and to effectuate their restructuring efforts.

Professional Compensation

8. Centerview's decision to advise and assist the Debtors in connection with these chapter 11 cases is subject to its ability to be retained in accordance with its customary terms and conditions of employment, compensated for its services, and reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses it incurs in accordance with its customary billing practices, as set forth in the Engagement Letter.

9. As set forth more fully in the Engagement Letter, and subject thereto, Centerview will be compensated as follows (the “Fee and Expense Structure”):

a. Monthly Fee.

- i. The Debtors will pay Centerview a fee of $175,000 per month (the “Monthly Advisory Fee”), which was due and paid by the Debtors upon execution of the Engagement Letter and, thereafter on each monthly anniversary thereof during the period of Centerview’s engagement (“Term”) under the Engagement Letter, in each case.
- ii. After receipt of aggregate Monthly Advisory Fees of $1,050,000, 50% of the amount of any subsequent Monthly Advisory Fee paid to Centerview will be credited (but only once) against any Transaction Fee (as defined below) payable to Centerview pursuant to Section 2(b) of the Engagement Letter (e.g., the Transaction Fee).

b. Transaction Fee.

- i. If at any time during the Term or within the first twelve full months following the termination of the engagement (including the Term, the “Fee Period”) the Debtors (1) consummate any Restructuring or (2) enter into an agreement in principle or definitive agreement to effect a Restructuring, and at any time (including following the expiration of the Fee Period), any Restructuring is consummated, Centerview shall be entitled to receive a transaction fee (a “Transaction Fee”), contingent upon the consummation of such Restructuring and payable at the closing thereof equal to $5,500,000.

c. Financing Fee.

- i. If at any time during the Fee Period, (1) the Debtors consummate any Debtor-in-Possession Financing or (2) the Debtors receive and accept written commitments for one or more Debtor-in-Possession Financings (the execution by a potential financing source and the Debtors of a commitment letter or securities purchase agreement or other definitive documentation shall be deemed to be the receipt and acceptance of such written commitment), and at any time (including following the expiration of the Fee Period) any Debtor-in-Possession Financing is consummated, the Debtors will pay to Centerview a fee equal to 1.00% of the aggregate amount of Debtor-in-Possession Financing (the “DIP Financing Fee”).

10. As part of the overall compensation payable to Centerview under the terms of the Engagement Letter, the Debtors also agreed to the indemnification, contribution, and other provisions (such provisions, the “Indemnification Provisions”), attached to the Engagement Letter as Annex A (the “Indemnification Agreement”).

11. In addition to any fees payable to Centerview, the Debtors will reimburse Centerview on a monthly basis for its reasonable and documented travel and other reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses (including all reasonable and documented fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel to be retained by Centerview, and of other consultants and advisors retained by Centerview with the Debtors’ consent), incurred in connection with, or arising out of Centerview’s activities under or contemplated by the Engagement Letter. The Debtors will also reimburse Centerview, at such times as Centerview shall request, for any sales, use, or similar taxes (including additions to such taxes, if any) arising in connection with any matter referred to in, or contemplated by, the Engagement Letter, during the term of their engagement.

12. Centerview intends to apply for compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with these chapter 11 cases, subject to the Court’s approval and in compliance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court, including any order approving the Application and consistent with the proposed Fee and Expense Structure set forth in the Engagement Letter.

13. Centerview agreed upon the Fee and Expense Structure in anticipation that a substantial commitment of professional time and effort would be required of Centerview and in light of the fact that (a) such commitment could foreclose other opportunities for Centerview and (b) the actual time and commitment required of Centerview and its professionals to perform its services under the Engagement Letter may vary substantially from week to week and month to month, creating “peak load” issues for Centerview.

Application For Compensation and Timekeeping

14. Centerview still intends to file interim and final fee applications for the allowance of compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred. Such applications will include time records setting forth, in a summary format, a description of the services that each professional renders and the amount of time that such individual spent on each date in rendering services on behalf of the Debtors.

15. Because it is not the general practice of investment banking firms, including Centerview, to keep contemporaneous detailed time records similar to those customarily kept by attorneys or provide or conform to a schedule of hourly rates for its professionals, Centerview does not maintain contemporaneous time records in one-tenth of an hour (0.1) increments, or provide or conform to a schedule of hourly rates for its professionals. Moreover, Centerview does not ordinarily keep time records on a “project category” basis and, pursuant to the Engagement Letter, Centerview’s compensation is based in part on a fixed Monthly Advisory Fee. Notwithstanding that Centerview does not charge for its services on an hourly basis, Centerview requests that it be permitted to maintain time records in half hour (0.5) increments, setting forth, in a summary format, a description of the services rendered and the professionals rendering such services on behalf of the Debtors. Centerview will also maintain records in support of any costs and expenses incurred in connection with its services.

Indemnification

16. As part of the overall compensation payable to Centerview under the terms of the Engagement Letter, the Debtors agreed to the Indemnification Provisions as set forth in the Indemnification Agreement. As more fully set forth therein, the Indemnification Agreement provides that the Debtors will indemnify and hold harmless Centerview, each of its affiliates, Centerview's and such affiliates' respective members, directors, officers, employees and controlling persons, and each of their respective successors and assigns (each an "Indemnified Person") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, demands and liabilities, joint or several, or actions or proceedings in respect thereof, brought by or against any person (collectively, "Losses"), which are related to or arise out of Centerview's engagement or any matter or transactions contemplated thereby.

17. I believe the Indemnification Provisions reflected in the Indemnification Agreement are customary and reasonable terms of consideration for investment banking firms such as Centerview for engagements both out of court and, as modified by the order approving Centerview's retention, in these chapter 11 cases. The Indemnification Agreement's Indemnification Provisions were fully negotiated by the Debtors and Centerview at arm's-length and in good faith. Centerview has also additionally agreed to the modifications to the Indemnification Provisions set forth in the Order in connection with their retention in these chapter 11 cases.

No Duplication of Services

18. Centerview does not believe that the services that it will render on behalf of the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases will be duplicative of the services performed by any of the other professionals retained by the Debtors, and Centerview intends to use reasonable efforts to coordinate and work together with such other professionals to minimize and avoid duplication of services.

Centerview's Disinterestedness

19. Prior to the Petition Date and pursuant to the Engagement Letter, the Debtors paid Centerview $350,000.00 in Monthly Advisory Fees and $10,000.00 in expense retainers.

Centerview has received no other compensation from the Debtors pursuant to the Engagement Letter. As of the Petition Date, Centerview did not hold a prepetition claim against the Debtors for fees or expenses related to services rendered in connection with the engagement.

20. In connection with its proposed retention by the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, Centerview attempted to determine whether it had any conflicts or other material relationships that might cause it not to be disinterested or to hold or represent an interest adverse to the Debtors. In connection with this inquiry, Centerview obtained from the Debtors and their professionals the names of individuals and entities that may be parties-in-interest in these chapter 11 cases (the “Potential Parties-in-Interest”). A list of the Potential Parties-in-Interest is provided on Schedule 1 attached hereto.

21. To the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, Centerview has not represented any Potential Parties-in-Interest in connection with matters relating to the Debtors, their estates, assets, or businesses and will not represent other entities which are creditors of, or have other relationships to, the Debtors in matters relating to these chapter 11 cases.

22. As part of this inquiry, Centerview entered the names of the Potential Parties-in-Interest into its computer database of existing and prior client and similar relationships. The list generated from Centerview’s client database is over-inclusive. Through this process, Centerview determined that it currently has and/or formerly had a relationship with certain of the Potential Parties-in-Interest (and/or their affiliates or entities that Centerview believes to be affiliates, as the case may be) on matters wholly unrelated to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases. To the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, and based on such internal review process, Schedule 2 lists Potential Parties-in-Interest (and/or their apparent affiliates or entities that Centerview believes to be affiliates, as the case may be) with which Centerview currently has or formerly had a client or similar relationship on matters wholly unrelated to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases, including but not limited to engagements to provide financial advisory services (including situations where the Potential Party-in-Interest is or was only a member of a group of lenders, creditors or equity owners that Centerview represented) and entities with whom Centerview has engaged in or is currently engaged in an ordinary course business development dialogue. For example, I note that Centerview has represented affiliates of Bank of America, Bank of America, N.A., FMR LLC, LCM Asset Management LLC, Nuveen Asset Management, LLC, and Octagon Credit Investors LLC, all of which are lenders to the Debtors and Potential Parties-in-Interest, in their capacity as members of creditor and noteholder groups in other restructuring matters. I further note that Centerview's only relationship with the known affiliates of the Debtors is through its current engagement with the Debtors.

23. Moreover, Centerview has in the past and may continue to provide financial advisory services to certain private equity firms, affiliates of which are Potential Parties-in-Interest, and/or certain of their portfolio companies and other entities in which they have investments, in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases. These relationships are in no way connected with matters relating to the Debtors, their estates, assets or businesses, and do not impair Centerview's disinterestedness with respect to the Debtors and their estates in these chapter 11 cases. To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, insofar as I have been able to ascertain after reasonable inquiry, none of these relationships are adverse to the Debtors' interests.

24. As part of Centerview's diverse business, Centerview appears or may appear as a financial advisor or an investment banker in numerous cases, proceedings, or transactions involving attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, and financial consultants, some of whom may represent claimants and Potential Parties-in-Interest or be claimants and Potential Parties-in-Interest in these chapter 11 cases. Further, Centerview (including its professionals through their prior employment) has in the past, and may in the future, be represented by attorneys and law firms, some of whom may be involved in these chapter 11 cases. In addition, Centerview (including its professionals through their prior employment) has in the past and will likely in the future be working with, against or for other professionals involved in these chapter 11 cases in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases. In addition, Centerview has been in the past, and likely will be in the future, engaged in matters unrelated to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases in which it works with or against or has mutual clients with other professionals involved in these chapter 11 cases. In particular, Centerview may also be engaged to represent, or may have been engaged to represent in the past, committees or groups of lenders, creditors, or equity owners in matters unrelated to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases, some of which are included on the Potential Parties-in-Interest list. Furthermore, as set forth on Schedule 3, Centerview has vendor relationships with certain of the entities listed as Potential Parties-in-Interest, including law firms, unrelated to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases. Based on our current knowledge of the entities listed as Potential Parties-in-Interest in these chapter 11 cases and the professionals involved, none of these business relations constitute interests materially adverse to the Debtors in matters upon which Centerview is to be engaged in these chapter 11 cases.

25. Other than as referenced herein or set forth on Schedule 2, I am unaware of any existing or prior client or similar relationships that Centerview has had with the Potential Parties-in-Interest. Centerview has not been engaged to assist any entity or person other than the Debtors on matters relating to, or in connection with, these chapter 11 cases. If the Court approves the proposed employment of Centerview by the Debtors, Centerview will not accept any engagement or perform any services in relation to these chapter 11 cases for any entity or person other than the Debtors. Centerview is a global investment banking and advisory firm. Given the size of Centerview and the breadth of Centerview's client base, it is possible that Centerview may now or in the future be engaged by one or more of the Potential Parties-in-Interest in matters unrelated to the Debtors or these Chapter 11 Cases without my knowledge. In addition, the Debtors may have customers, creditors, competitors, and other parties with whom they maintain business relationships that are not listed as Potential Parties-in-Interest and with whom Centerview may now or in the future have engagements or maintain material commercial or other professional relationships. To the extent that Centerview discovers any, or enters into any new material commercial or other professional relationship with Potential Parties-in-Interest, it will use reasonable efforts to supplement this disclosure to the Court.

26. Further, Centerview has legal and separate affiliates and related parties (the "Corporate Group Entities") that engage in a variety of investment activities. Among the Corporate Group Entities are (i) "Centerview Capital Consumer," the consumer private equity investment business sponsored by Centerview Capital Holdings LLC and its affiliates ("Centerview Capital"), and the various entities and funds that are engaged in such business, and (ii) "Centerview Capital Technology," the technology growth equity investment business sponsored by Centerview Capital, and the various entities and funds that are engaged in such business. The Corporate Group Entities do not reside in the same corporate structure as Centerview. The Centerview employees providing services in connection with these chapter 11 cases have no control over investment or business decisions made for the Corporate Group Entities, and because of physical and electronic information barriers and other compliance policies and procedures, have no access to any confidential information of the Corporate Group Entities. Likewise, the investment professionals responsible for the Corporate Group Entities' day-to-day portfolio management have no access to any confidential information relating to Centerview's work for the Debtors. However, I note that certain partners of Centerview are partners in Centerview Capital Consumer and Centerview Capital Technology and serve on their respective investment committees. Further, I am informed that Centerview Capital Consumer indirectly holds a less than 15% equity interest in Advantage Solutions, Inc. ("Advantage Solutions"), the publicly traded parent company of Advantage Sales & Marketing Inc., a vendor of the Debtors and a Potential Party-in-Interest. With the exception of this investment, none of the Corporate Group Entities holds an ownership interest in, or debt of, any of the Debtors or the other Potential Parties-in-Interest.⁶

27. Based upon my understanding from Centerview's internal compliance group, Centerview's internal compliance group, which sits above Centerview's investment banking deal teams and the investment professionals within the Corporate Group Entities, has real-time access to the identities of the companies in which the Corporate Group Entities invest. As part of Centerview's search for relationships between any of the Corporate Group Entities and the companies in which they are invested, on the one hand, and the Potential Parties-in-Interest, on the other hand, Centerview's internal compliance group compared the Corporate Group Entities and the companies in which they are invested to the list of Potential Parties-in-Interest. Centerview's internal compliance group, consistent with its standard practice, did not inform any of the Corporate Group Entities that it was conducting this comparison. Furthermore, were any of the Corporate Group Entities to make a new investment, which is unlikely given that the investment period for the Corporate Group Entities has expired, Centerview's internal compliance group would be made aware before the investment is made and would be in a position to review that investment against the Potential Parties-in-Interest and update Centerview's prior disclosures or take other action as necessary.

28. Based on the foregoing, I believe that the Corporate Group Entities' investment activities do not present a conflict of interest with respect to Centerview's retention by the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases. If any of the Corporate Group Entities subsequently invest in any of the Potential Parties-in-Interest, or if Centerview becomes aware that any entity in which any of the Corporate Group Entities is invested subsequently becomes a Potential Party-in-Interest, Centerview will use reasonable efforts to file a supplemental declaration, as required by Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a). Moreover, I note that certain of the Potential Parties-in-Interest may now or in the future invest in funds that are managed by the Corporate Group Entities or co-invest with the Corporate Group Entities, but I do not believe that these potential relationships create a conflict of interest for Centerview regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

29. I note that James Kilts, David West and Brian Ratzan, principals of Centerview Capital Consumer, are members of the Board of Directors of Advantage Solutions (the "Advantage Solutions Board"), which is described above. Mr. Kilts is the Chairman of the Advantage Solutions Board. Messrs. Kilts, West and Ratzan are not employees of Centerview, do not share in any of the profits of Centerview (including any fees that may be paid by the Debtors to Centerview), and have no role in the governance of Centerview in any respect. Further, Messrs. Kilts, West and Ratzan do not have access to confidential information relating to Centerview's work for the Debtors, and are not physically located in any Centerview office. Accordingly, I believe that the foregoing board memberships do not present a conflict of interest regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

30. To the best of my knowledge and belief after reasonable inquiry, neither I, Centerview, nor any Centerview employees participating in Centerview's engagement with the Debtors: (a) is related to or has any connection with the U.S. Trustee for the District of Delaware or anyone employed in the Office of the U.S. Trustee for the District of Delaware or (b) is related to or has any connection with any United States Bankruptcy Judge for the District of Delaware, including the judge assigned to these chapter 11 cases.

31. To the best of my knowledge and belief, insofar as I have been able to ascertain after reasonable inquiry, Centerview has no agreement with any other entity to share with such entity any compensation received by Centerview in connection with these chapter 11 cases. No promises have been received by Centerview as to compensation for Centerview in connection with these chapter 11 cases other than in accordance with the Engagement Letter.

32. Certain employees of Centerview were formerly employed by other investment banking, financial services or other professional services firms that are among, or represent other parties that are among, the creditors, equity holders, or other Potential Parties-in-Interest in these chapter 11 cases in connection with matters unrelated to the Debtors and these chapter 11 cases. For example, I note that Karn Chopra, a partner of Centerview, who is working on this engagement, was previously employed by AlixPartners, a bankruptcy professional in these cases and a Potential Party-in-Interest, over twenty years ago. I do not believe that these matters create a conflict of interest regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

33. In addition, certain employees of Centerview and certain of such persons' relatives may directly or indirectly hold, in the ordinary course, debt or equity securities of the Debtors or certain of the Potential Parties-in-Interest. However, based upon the information that has been provided to me, I believe that any such holdings are insignificant and, to my knowledge, none of these investors controls or has any influence on such Potential Parties-in-Interest. Therefore, I do not believe these investments, considered separately or collectively, are material or create a conflict of interest regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

34. Finally, I note that John Roos, who was a senior advisor to Centerview from 2014 through the end of 2024, is a member of the board of directors of Salesforce, Inc., a vendor of the Debtors and a Potential Party-in-Interest. As a senior advisor, Mr. Roos was a part-time independent contractor. Mr. Roos was not an employee of Centerview. He did not share in any of the profits of Centerview (including any fees that the Debtors have paid to Centerview) and had no role in the governance of Centerview in any respect. Further, Mr. Roos did not have access to confidential information relating to Centerview's work for the Debtors, and was not physically located in any Centerview office. Accordingly, I believe that the foregoing board membership does not present a conflict of interest regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

35. In light of the number of the Debtors' creditors, Potential Parties-in-Interest, and potential additional parties-in-interest, neither I nor Centerview am able conclusively to identify all potential relationships at this time, and we reserve the right to supplement this disclosure as additional material relationships come to our attention. In particular, among other things, Centerview may have relationships with persons who are beneficial owners of Potential Parties-in-Interest and persons whose beneficial owners include Potential Parties-in-Interest or persons who otherwise have relationships with Potential Parties-in-Interest. Moreover, Centerview employees may have relationships with Potential Parties-in-Interest, persons that may become parties-in-interest in this case, or persons that have business relationships with the Debtors or are competitors of the Debtors.

36. Based on the foregoing, to the best of my knowledge and belief, insofar as I have been able to ascertain after reasonable inquiry, Centerview and the employees of Centerview that will work on this engagement do not hold or represent any interest adverse to the Debtors or their estates, and Centerview is a “disinterested person” as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, as modified by section 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that Centerview and the employees of Centerview that will work on this engagement:

- a. are not creditors, equity security holders, or insiders of the Debtors;
- b. were not, within two years before the Petition Date, a director, officer, or employee of the Debtors; and
- c. do not have an interest materially adverse to the Debtors, their respective estates, or any class of creditors or equity security holders by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with, or interest in the Debtors, or for any other reason.

37. To the extent that any new material facts or relationships bearing on the matters described herein during the period of Centerview’s retention are discovered or arise, Centerview will use reasonable efforts to file a supplemental declaration, as required by Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a)

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

Dated: February 13, 2025
New York, New York

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Ryan Kielty
